FAIR PICTURE HANGING IN NATIONAL GALLERY IS DESTROYED BY MILITANT

May Richardson, Jailed Many Times, Tells Magistrate She Gut Painting as Protest Against Treatment of Emmeline Pankhurst, Who She Describes as Most Beautiful Character in Modern History—Bands of Women Await Arrival of Leader Ready to Fight For Her.

London, March 10.—May Richardson, a notorious militant suffragette, did great damage today to the famous Velasquez picture known as The Rokeby Venus, which is now in the National gallery. The picture was purchased for $225,000 and presented to the nation by the National Gallery experts have estimated its present market value at $50,000.

The woman entered the gallery and pried the picture with a sharp knife making a series of cuts across the canvas. She was arrested.

May Richardson has been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment since she began her violent and flagrant militant movement. She was arrested at Bristol on July 1 last year for dropping a scroll of paper from the roof of a building which was draped through the city. After she had served three months' imprisonment she was arrested again November for breaking into a house in a suburb of Thomas, but immediately started a hunger strike and was released a few weeks later in a serious condition of health.

Gallery Now Closed

The national gallery was closed by the authorities after the outrage took place.

Many of the public art collections such as those at Hampton Court Palace and especially galleries where women painted on exhibition were closed a year ago as a result of militant outbreaks and not been opened since.

After her arrest Miss Richardson said: "I tried to destroy the picture of the most beautiful woman in my historical history as a protest against the treatment of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is the most beautiful character in modern history."

This magistrate committed Miss Richardson, for trial, at the session and refused to grant bail.

Selling Value Depreciated

Havre Garrison Turner, secretary and keeper of the National Gallery, told the magistrate that the selling value of the picture had been depreciated by the cutting by as much as $75,000.

The prisoner harangued the court before she spoke. "Originally I was the secretaries who turned the criminal code into a farce. This is the tenth time I have been brought before a magistrate this year. He has always been very kind and compelled me to serve a sentence. He can only repeat the farce of releasing me."

Richardson claimed in defense of her action that all the railroad stations in Glasgow today are readiness to fight for the rescue of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst. The militant leader, however, who was arrested last night while speaking in St. Andrews hall, was removed from the station house to a holding cell in the police station in the morning in order to avoid the attention of her supporters.

Carried From Cell

She was carried from the cell to a waiting automobile on a stretcher and a motor car then dashed off at high speed to a station on the railway where she was carried on board and express train for London.

It is assumed that the militant leader is in Holloway jail.

Many of the policemen who assisted on May Pankhurst's arrest last night suffered from scratches from the sharp metal fragments which she used.

London, March 10.—Strong detachments of militia suffragettes today pelted every London railway terminus at which Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is the most beautiful character in modern history,

This magistrate committed Miss Richardson, for trial, at the session and refused to grant bail.

SOCIETY WOMAN IN SEARCH OF NEW THRILLS.

(Mrs. David Dow.)

Mrs. David Dow, one of New York's most prominent social workers, has about concluded that this is a handbarn existence lived by the inhabitants of Mother Earth. Mrs. Dow believes she has run the entire gamut of worldly thrills, but is still on the lookout for something new. Mrs. Dow has ridden the most fiery steeds among them ever the most dangerous animals. She has driven racing automobiles at blind speed. She once captured a burly single-handed a bandit in mid-air and never experienced such excitement. She has tired of flitting through the clouds on an aeroplane, and is impatiently waiting to hear of some sort of danger, which she has not already experienced.

SOCIETY WOMAN IN SEARCH OF NEW THRILLS.

(Mrs. David Dowd.)

Mrs. David Dowd, one of New Zealanders over the most dangerous women has dropped racing and turned to blindfold driving.

She has piloted all manner of watercrafts. She has tired of flitting through the air in aeroplanes and is impatiently waiting to hear of some sort of dangerous venture that she has not already experienced.

Jumping from heights, she has dived into the sea blindfolded and has driven a burkini single-handed.

The same committee took up the suggestion made by members of the board to the effect that magistrates in certain classes of indictable offences, and especially when, having dismissed a case, could be recommended to the magistrate that it is not in the public interest that a magistrate should be qualified with power to commit an offender to prison for the inability of the criminal to meet the expense of a charge made under the criminal code and representations have accordingly been made to the honorable the minister of justice.

Representations have been made to the honorable the minister of mines and the honorable the minister of fisheries and game, with the object of the development of Alberta's fisheries.

Representations have been made to the honorable the minister of agriculture urging that the time has arrived when the inland revenue division of Alberta, which comprises the entire province of Alberta, should be subdivided and the office at Edmonton, which at the present time is a subdivision of the district office at Calgary, should be given the status of a division.

At these meetings particular attention has been given to the subject of the subdivision of the Ontario divisions. In an acknowledgement from the minister, it is stated that representations had also been made to him.

Following the recent increase in the revenue derived from the division the department had not hitherto been in a position to receive a visit from the minister. Communication has been forwarded to the department pointing out that the board could no longer afford to satiate the demands of the ministry of the Ontario divisions.

Belo Horizonte, Brazil, March 10.—Martial law was proclaimed throughout the state of Ceara. Federal troops have been placed on guard at the principal commercial and pastoral towns in Fortaleza, the capital, capturing leaders of the strike.

She said: "Reginald McPhee, my home secretary, has turned up at certain stations in Scotland for the tenth time I have been brought before a magistrate this year. He cannot come now and cannot compel me to do so. I am bound to only repeat the farce of releasing me."

Glasgow, Scotland, March 10.—Twenty-four defendants and supporters waited at all the railway stations to fight for the rescue of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst. The militant leader, however, was not to be found, having while speaking in St. Andrews hall, was removed from the station house to a suburban railway station early in the afternoon and avoided the attention of her supporters.

Carded From Cell

Mrs. Pankhurst was carried from the train at 10 o'clock yesterday on a stretcher and a motor car then drove off at high speed to a station on the main line of the railway where she was received and sent on board the express train for London.

It is assumed that the militant leader will be placed in Holloway jail. Mrs. Pankhurst's arms had might suffered severe scratches from the barbs of the wire which had stretched across the entrance from which she was speaking.

London, March 10.—Strong detachments of suffragette subversives, today held over from London, reached Liverpool at which Miss Emmeline Pankhurst will arrive when she reached here from Scotland. Sounds of suffrage warfare were heard outside the entrance of Holloway jail.

NEW TYPE OF TRAILER

While in Montreal the Commissioner of Fisheries inspected the fishing plant of the Montreal Fish Co. at Portage du Moulin. This company supplies water to the city of Montreal and Westmount, with the exception of the business portion of the latter. The capacity of the plant is 20,000 gallons per day, and it is proposed to enlarge it three times.

The system used is similar to that proposed for the new Edmonton plant. The water is taken from the Peace River, which is much larger and its cliffs are much higher and more rugged than the Saskatchewan, is navigable for 400 miles.

"Tomorrow night the first meeting of this week will take place at the corner of First Street and Bonaventure Avenue. It will be for liberal in Hull's Bay Reserve. On Thursday night the west end of the city will be organized at a meeting in the hall of the Canadian Pacific Hotel, fourth street and Tony Plain road, while on Friday evening the library, No. 5 will meet in the Oldfield Hall, half wood boulevard.

At these meetings prominent speakers will address the audience, including Hon. A. G. MacKay, Geo. B. O'Connor, Jas. Adair, Geo. O'Connor, Jas.

"If you stand on the flats here in Edmonton and look up at the well built cities you will see the end of the world," said J. M. Murphy, who has just arrived from the west end of the country. "This is the difference the Peace River is much larger and its cliffs are much higher and more rugged than the Saskatchewan, is navigable for 400 miles.

Mr. Murphy and Ralph Langenberg are what some people call lucky. They came to Alberta from the coast last fall and have made a fortune for themselves. They are from the Peace River, a line went up north to look for land.

They actually filed on a quarter section acreage with three miles of Douglas fir timber and the timber in the north predict that by the time they get their patients in three years each will have made a fortune out of his little homestead.

"Some people wonder," said Mr. Murphy today, "why Edmonton is experiencing such a rapidly good growth. The number of people in the country are so dull, but if they would go to Lesser Slave lake and the hundreds of tea gardens there, they would soon only know the reason, but wonder why the city is not growing even faster. There are no tea gardens making better efforts to capture the market of the Peace River district.

Best of the Bush

I have just rung the western hemisphere of this old globe quite a bit now. I have been in Argentina, Chile, Australia, with the exception of Tasmania and is a great cattle country.

I have seen the natives grow coffee in tropical Brazil. I have been in other South American countries, in Central America in the middle west and in practically every part of the United States, but in the Panamanian district for many years.

The trip has been a great deal of fun. The weather has been excellent throughout the short stay in the east." Commissioner Chalmers was at his office at an early hour yesterday morning, and when he came up as soon as possible with the work which has been piling up since he left the city about two weeks ago.

She has tired of flying and has given up racing, and is impatiently waiting to hear of something new. Mrs. Dow has ridden the most fiery steeds.

May Richardson, Jailed Many Times, Tells Magistrate She Cut Painting as Protest Against Treatment of Emmeline Pankhurst, Who She Describes as Most Beautiful Character in Modern History—Bands of Women Await Arrival of Leader Ready to Fight For Her.

London, March 10.—Miss Richardson, a notorious militant suffragette, did great damage today to the famous Velasquez picture known as The Rokeby Venus, which is hung in the National gallery. The picture was purchased for $25,000 and presented to the nation.

Experts have estimated its present market value at $100,000.

The woman entered the gallery and attacked the picture with a sharp knife, making six or seven cuts across the canvas. She was arrested.

Miss Richardson has been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment for her part in the militant suffrage movement. She was arrested at Bristol on July 1 last year for despoiling a scroll of paper on the statue of King George V, who was driving through the town. After serving three months' imprisonment she was arrested again in November for breaking in house at Gloucester. This time she was sentenced to a shorter time and was released a few weeks later in a serious condition of health.

Gallery Now Closed

The national gallery was closed by the authorities after the outrage took place.

Many of the public art collections, such as those at Hampton Court Palace and especially galleries where valuable porcelain is on exhibition were closed a year ago on account of militant outbreaks and not been opened since.

After her release, Miss Richardson set off to London to protest against one of the most beautiful women in mythological history as a protest against the government for destroying Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is the most beautiful character in modern history."

The same day, committed Miss Richardson for trial at the sessions and refused to grant bail.

Selling Value Depreciated

Hanover Junction Turner, secretary and keeper of the National Gallery, told the magistrate that the selling value of the picture had been depreciated by the outrage by as much as $75,000.

The prisoner harangued the court at length. She said: "Reginald McLean, the steward of the gallery, told me the criminal was intent on fame. This is the tenth time I have been brought before a magistrate this year. He has been here many times and came home to serve a term of imprisonment. I can only repeat the fare of releasing me."

On the Southern, March 10, reports of thousand-miles-long firecrackers waited at all the railroad stations in Glasgow today in readiness to light for the rescue of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who was arrested last night while speaking in St. Andrews hall, was removed from the station house to a neighboring hotel. She had spoken early in the morning in order to avoid the attention of the suffragettes.

CARRIED FROM CELL

Miss Pankhurst was carried from the cell in a stretcher and laid on a stretcher and a motor car then dashed off at high speed to a station on the main line of the railway where she was placed on board the express train for London.

It is assumed that the militant leader will be placed in Holloway jail, where she has been held since her arrest on Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest had suffered severe scuffles from the barbed wire which had been stretched across the platform from which she was speaking.

London, March 10.—Strong detachments of military police were on duty at the London railway terminals yesterday at which Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst might arrive when she reached from Scotland. Squads of uniformed men stood outside the entrance of Holloway jail.

After the trial, committed Miss Richardson for trial at the sessions and refused to grant bail.

Mrs. Richardson, Jailed Many Times, Tells Magistrate She Cut Painting as Protest Against Treatment of Emmeline Pankhurst, Who She Describes as Most Beautiful Character in Modern History—Bands of Women Await Arrival of Leader Ready to Fight For Her.

LONDON, March 10.—Many Richardsons, a notorious militant suffragette, has done great damage today to the famous Veronese picture known as "The Robe," which is now in the National gallery. The picture was purchased for £225,000 and presented to the nation.

Art experts have estimated its present value at £500,000.

The woman cut the gallery and extracted the picture with a sharp knife, marking six or seven bad cuts across the canvas. She was arrested.

Mrs. Richardson had been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment since the beginning of the women's suffrage movement. She was arrested at 12.30 a.m. last night for dropping a scroll of paper on the knees of King George as he was driving through the city. After she received her term of imprisonment she was arrested again in November for burning a house at Hampton on Thames but immediately started a home strike and was released a few weeks later in a serious condition of health.

Cried From Cell

Mrs. Richardson was carried from the cell to a waiting automobile on a stretcher and a motor car then dashed through the streets of the capital on the main line of the railway along which she was carried on board the express train for London.

It is believed that the militant leader will be placed in Holloway jail.

Many of the suffragettes who assisted on Mrs. Richardson's latest raid might have been inspired by the words of a bandit who has been last seen stretching the platform from which she was captured.

London, March 10.—Strong detachments of militant suffragettes today picketed at every London railway terminus while Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who had been released from Scotland, where she had sought refuge from the police, was also staged outside the entrance of Holloway jail.

Belo Horizonte, Brazil, March 10.—Martial law was proclaimed today throughout the state of Ceara. Federal troops have been placed on guard at the principal towns and private houses have been converted into barracks by the government for destroying Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is the most beautiful character in modern history.

The magistrate committed Mrs. Richardson for trial at the sessions and refused to grant bail.

Selling Value Depreciated

Hawes Harrison Turner, secretary treasurer of the National Gallery, told the magistrate that the selling value of the picture had been depreciated by the outrages by as much as £72,000.

The magistrate harangued the court at length. She said: "Reginald McKeown, the home secretary, has turned the criminal code into a farce. This picture is worth £500,000 and I demand before a magistrate this year. He cannot coerce me and cannot compel me to give a sentence. He can only prevent the trial from proceeding."

Glasgow, Scotland, March 10.—Hundreds of determined militant suffragettes waited at all the railroad stations in the city yesterday in protest to fight for the rescue of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst. The militant leader, however, who was arrested last night, was removed from the station house to a suburban railway station early in the morning in order to avoid the attention of the public.

Many of the public art collections in the British Isles, including the Victoria and Albert Museum, where valuable porcelain is on exhibition were closed a year ago on account of militant outbreaks and not been opened since.

After her arrest Mrs. Richardson said: "I tried to destroy the picture of Mrs. Pankhurst because I wanted to teach the government a lesson for destroying Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is the most beautiful character in modern history."

The magistrate committed Mrs. Richardson to trial for the second time and refused to grant bail.

If you stand on the flats here in Edmonton and look up at the wet hillsides, you will get an idea of what Dunvegan will be in a few years," said Mr. Murphy, who just arrived from the West. "People here know this is different; the Peace river is much larger and its cliffs are much higher and more rugged than the Sasquatch. It is navigable for 600 miles.

Mr. Murphy and Ralph Langenberg came to Alberta for luck. They came to Alberta from the east and after working in the city for a time went up north to land for land.

They actually flew on a quarter section of land in the Dunvegan townsite, and those who know the north predict that by the time they get their parents in three years they will have built a fortune out of his little old homestead.

"Any people wonder," said Mr. Murphy today, "why we homesteaders are so happy. We are doing fine when all of the other cities in the country are so dull, but if they would go up to the Slave lake and look at the roads of timber and stone in the north with settlers and supplies they would soon not know the reason why we are not doing well.

There is no better place in the world to live than Dunvegan," he said.

Mr. Murphy and Ralph Langenberg came to Alberta for luck. They came to Alberta from the east and after working in the city for a time went up north to land for land.

Our biggest season is now open—it is biggest in every respect. Big in ideas of what Edmonton women require, we have gathered together for your approval the most extensive assortment of exclusive apparel that has ever been brought to Edmonton. Big in our ideas of service to you (and good value is merely a phase of service) we submit for your verdict the most attractively priced elegant garments and dress accessories it has yet been our privilege to offer. Will you view the display on Wednesday?

Picturesque Suits, Elaborately Designed Of Rich New Fabrics

The suits this season are so decidedly different that every woman must have a new suit to be in fashion. Of course, tailored suits are correct, they always are, but even the tailored suits are different. The fancy suits, however, are so novel and quaint as to arrest the attention of even mere man. Women are enthusiastic about them. Some of the most striking suits are cut high in the front; many have vests; and the novelty skirts suggest the bustle effect and have extremely full hips. There are all sorts of elegant new weaves of wool and silk. Our suits range in price from $10.00 to $15.00.

A Representative Style

A suit that is typical of the newest effects is made of a beautiful grey fabric broadloom in tan figures. The coat is short, cut high in front and has loose back gathered at waist with woven silk cord. The lapels are wide, long, straight and loose. The reverse side of lapels are of floral satin. At bottom of either lapel is a magnificent silk cord ornament and tassel. Collar is of gold cloth finished with floral satin. The skirt has hip hips and is finished in tune. Effect, Size 36. Price, $38.00

Artistic Drapery Materials

The beautiful Shadow Cretonne is a new drapery fabric 18 inches wide and comes in rich colors—blue, green, blue, etc., on cream background. Price per yard $1.50 Then we have a most interesting assortment of Artistic Chintz in the following per yard 45c

Silk Evening and Afternoon Dresses From $6.95 to $60.00

Our aim is to have something for people in all stations of life—and the best styles, and best values at each price. The woman of means can get fashion's most fascinating gowns here, priced fairly—and the workingman's wife can get a moderately priced dress that in spite of its low price is correct and fashionable. Whether it is the neat messline silk dress at $6.95 or the exquisite creation of dainty faces and silks at $60.00 you may rest assured that at Ramsey's you get one hundred cents worth of value for every dollar you pay.

At $22.00 we have a line of exceptionally splendid styles. One is a messline silk dress in black, navy, tan and saff. Has drop shoulders, yoke in both back and front, velvet collar, short sleeves, ruching around neck and cuffs and pleated peplum skirt.

And even at the small price of $7.50 we can show you some remarkable party dresses. One in particular is worth mentioning. They are imported from New York, and are as dainty and chic as many you will be offered this season at double the price. They are made of voiles, marquises, crepes, ratines, satine rayes, and other sumptuous fabrics.

Presentation By The EDMONTON CAPITAL

Willis J. Abbot, the versatile writer on International subjects and author of many books of history and travel, spent months in Panama and the Canal Zone in the preparation of this volume. He collected at first hand the complete history of the great Canal, with a wealth of historical data concerning Panama which has never before been written. The result is a human interest story of this beautiful land and its people from the early days when Columbus tried to find a natural waterway from the Atlantic to the Pacific, down to the present time.

Special staff photographers made the hundreds of beautiful views which illustrate practically every page of this exhaustive book.

The well-known artist, E. J. Read, made the sixteen sumptuous water-color studies which are reproduced by the latest color processes on specially made paper.

The Panama Canal, the greatest engineering achievement of the world's history, cost more than $400,000,000

It links the two greatest oceans, and becomes the most important factor in peace and war. So where is the red-blooded inhabitant of this globe that does not feel vitally interested in it? Truly it is the wonder of this progressive age!

TOTEM POLES NOW SUPPLIED TO ALL

Is Sign of Activity in Trade
Due to Building of G.T.P.
Into B.C.

CHIEF ALFRED IN BUSINESS

Writes Capital Asking Who Deals in His Useful Product Hero.

There is now no doubt in the wide world that Edmonton is for a large part to come into the trade of the country. While Vancouver wholesalers are shipping goods via Calgary and Edmonton, in a last frantic attempt to hold on to his business, he has monopolized so long, while safe firms are selling safely by the score to hold the wealth of the people of the B.C. area, he is still trying to hold on to some of the old customers that he has.

The story deals with a young Italian who is persuaded to join a band of gangsters and is used as a "categorical" to help them in their sinister schemes. He later learns the purpose of his supposed friends and turns and fights in with the plain people of the city to help them out of the conspiracy that was hatched to kidnap his daughter and distract him from his place. It makes an entertaining yet not sensational picture story.

"The Mirror of Death" is another good book to add to your program.
The settings are splendid in this program.
The settings are splendid in this program.

The King, wealthy American owns a mine in Sonora, Mexico. Hay comes to the King's house to see the King and King's daughter Alice. The girl is romantic and tells him that with her he can do something heroic.

He goes to the King's house to see the King and Alice again to visit the mine and have to cross a fatal bridge at deep gorge. The road across the bridge and instructs Joe, his servant, to cut the bridge on the other side, which he does. Ray takes the King and Alice to the Federal for help. The Mexican then cuts an old tree across the gorge and attempts to cross it at that.

The trip is perfectly safe. Alice falls into the sun and into their eyes, effectively hulls them off until Ray arrives with the Federal troops.

The Mondozis men

and Alice are captured and are sent to prison.

The editor of the Capital will be pleased to know the names and addresses of anyone who deals in or wants to buy totem poles.
